

POLITICAL SIGN INFORMATION

Political Signs are temporary signs and may be placed on private property provided each candidate abides by the following sign regulations:

- Signs may be placed on private property after the candidate qualifies for election, and must remove said signs within seven (7) days after the general election or after the primary election if the individual is no longer a viable candidate. However, a candidate is not expected to remove those political campaign advertisements which are in the form of signs used by an outdoor advertising business as outlined in Florida Statutes Chapter 479.
- In residential districts, political signs shall not exceed sixteen (16) square feet per face.
- In commercial districts, political signs shall not exceed thirty-two (32) square feet per face.
- Political signs shall not be placed on public property.
- Political signs shall not be placed on private property, including vacant lots, without the express permission of the owner of such property.
- No political signs shall be placed on any city, state or county road right-of-way.
